OF ONTARIO

FOR 1920—1921

REGISTRATION OFFICE

COLLEGE OF PHYSICIANS & SURGEONS OF ONTARIO

170 University Avenue, Toronto

JULY—1920

THE RED INK APPEAL

Much annoyance has been occasioned to many of the members of the College, through inability of the Registrar to give to the Workmen's Compensation Board, and to the Board of License Commissioners for Ontario, a full list of the names and addresses of those of its members practicing in the Province of Ontario.

These two Boards will not recognize the claims or honor the prescriptions respectively of members, with whose addresses they are not acquainted. They look to the College for information in this regard.

If each member, in locating for the first time, or in changing his address later, would notify the Registrar of the same, the latter could, in turn, advise these Boards of such location or change of address, and all inconvenience and annoyance arising from this source, would be at once removed.

The members of the College are the only ones who can give this information to the Registrar, and they are earnestly requested to do so.

VACCINATION

The attention of the Profession is invited to the following extract from the Ontario Vaccination Act, Section 8, (2), page 58:—

“The father and mother of every child born in such city, town, township, or village shall, at some appointed time within three months after the birth of such child, or in the event of the death, illness, absence or inability of the father and mother, then the person who has the care, nurture, or custody of the child, shall at some appointed time within four months after the birth of the child, take or cause to be taken the child to the medical practitioner in attendance at the appointed place, according to the provisions of the preceding sections, for the purpose of being vaccinated, unless the child has been previously vaccinated by a legally qualified medical practitioner and the vaccination has been duly certified; and the medical practitioner so appointed shall thereupon, or as soon after as it can conveniently and properly be done, vaccinate the child.”

Announcement for the Academic Year 1920-1921

“The College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario” is the name adopted by the Medical Profession of the Province of Ontario in its corporate capacity. Every legally qualified medical practitioner in the Province is a member of this College. It is not an institution for the teaching of medicine.

The Medical Profession of Ontario was first incorporated under this name by an Act of Parliament of Canada, passed in 1866. This Act was subsequently repealed by the Legislature of Ontario in 1869, and now the affairs of the Profession in this Province are regulated by an Act passed in 1874 (37 Vic., Cap. 30), commonly known as the “Ontario Medical Act,” and further amended in 1887, 1891, 1893, 1895, 1902, 1905, 1914-1915, and 1918-1919.

By this Act, the “Council of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario” is empowered and directed to enact by-laws for the regulation of all matters connected with medical education; for the admission and enrolment of students of medicine; for determining from time to time the curriculum of the studies to be pursued by them, and to appoint a Board of Examiners, before whom all candidates must pass a satisfactory examination before they can be enrolled as members of the College, and thus be legally qualified to practise their profession in the Province of Ontario.

The Council, moreover, has power and authority conferred upon it by this Act to fix the terms upon which practitioners of medicine, duly qualified in other countries, may be admitted as members of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario, this being the only mode in which they can become legally entitled to practise their profession in this Province.

For the information and guidance of students of medicine, the Profession, and the public generally, the Council, in conformity with the Ontario Medical Act, hereby promulgates for the year 1920-1921 the Regulations which herein follow, repealing all others heretofore in force.

Examinations—Duties of Registrar and Board of Examiners

Rules for the guidance of the Registrar and the Board of Examiners:

1. The Registrar or a deputy Registrar must be present at every examination, and each student must produce evidence satisfactory to the Registrar or Deputy Registrar of his identity.

2. At the end of each written examination upon any subject, the answers to the questions are to be handed by the candidates to the Registrar, who will open the envelopes, in which they are hereinafter directed to be enclosed, and to each set of papers affix a number by which the author will be known to the Examiners during the examination. The Registrar will then deliver the papers to those members of the Board of Examiners appointed by the Council to examine upon the subject, upon which these candidates have just been writing.

3. The papers when delivered to the members of the Board of Examiners appointed by the Council to examine on the subject, are to be by them examined, and the relative value of answers marked by means of numbers on a blank form which will be furnished to them by the Registrar.

4. The percentage in all subjects of the Professional Examinations shall range from 0 to 100, of which sixty per cent. will be required to pass in each subject.

5. The value awarded by the Examiners to the answers of candidates and confirmed by the Board of Examiners is final: and is not subject to revision.

6. In the event of any alterations or erasures in the marks of a paper, or of any question in a paper, the same shall be initialed by both Examiners.

7. The Examiners shall, on the completion of their work, conjointly certify to the schedule of marks and books. Their report, including schedule of marks and books, completed and duly certified, shall be final, and shall forthwith be filed with the Registrar.

8. The Examiner shall return the schedule to the Registrar, with values inserted, within fifteen days of the close of examinations on his subject. From these values a general schedule shall be prepared by a chartered accountant associated with the Registrar, which schedule shall be inspected and signed by the President before the results are announced.

9. The Registrar, in notifying the members of the Board of Examiners, will direct attention to the following instructions, a copy of which he shall enclose.

(a) In preparation of questions Examiners will confine themselves to the principles common to the standard text-books.

(b) In referring to diseases or operations of any kind, the name of such disease or operation most commonly in use must be employed, and the Examiners shall refrain as far as possible from the use of proper names and ambiguous questions.

(c) In the preparation of the paper, opposite each question shall be placed the value of a full and correct answer thereof—the whole of such numbers to amount to 100.

(d) In the reading of papers the Examiners shall mark in colored pencil what they regard as the numerical value of the answers given for each question opposite the same.

(e) The oral and clinical examinations are to be made as practical, demonstrative or clinical as possible, and shall occupy at least thirty minutes.

(f) Candidates shall be known to the Examiners by numbers only.

(g) There shall be two examiners in each subject who shall conjointly set and examine each paper and conjointly examine the student in the "Oral and Clinical" Examination.

(h) In the event of any alteration or erasures in the marks of a paper, or of any question in a paper, the same shall be initialed by both Examiners.

(i) The Examiners shall meet at the close of the examination for consultation and consideration of reports before these are forwarded to the Registrar. The Examiners shall, on the completion of their work, conjointly certify to the schedules of marks and books. Their report, including schedules of marks and books completed and duly certified, shall be final, and shall forthwith be filed with the Registrar.

10. Candidates for oral examinations will be divided into classes alphabetically, and notified of the time at which they shall present themselves for examination. Such students shall wait in an adjoining room, and appear before the Examiners when summoned.

11. The Examiners in each subject shall meet at a convenient point to prepare the examination papers, and shall send each paper to the Registrar by registered mail at least two weeks before the date of examination. (The Examiners shall approve of proofs before printing.)

12. As no appeal is now permitted from the findings of the Board, the President, with the Vice-President as his alternate, shall attend the usual meeting held by the Board of Examiners preparatory to handing in the Schedule of Examination Marks to the Registrar for consultation and consideration of said Schedule with the Examiners.

SECTION V.

Examinations—Rules for Candidates in the Examination Hall

1. Each candidate shall receive from the Registrar a programme containing a list of subjects upon which the candidate is to be examined, and it will admit him to the examination hall during the progress of the examination upon such subjects, but at no other time.

2. Candidates must write the answers to the questions given by the Examiners legibly and neatly upon one side of each page of a book, which will be furnished to each candidate, and the number of each question, as it appears in the examination paper, is to be put at the head of the answer to it, in such a manner as to have the first page facing outward to the view; the papers then to be folded once and enclosed in an envelope, on the outside of which each candidate is to write his name. The packet is then to be handed to the Registrar or his deputy. No signature, number or sign, by which the writer could be recognized by the Examiner, is to be written or marked on any portion of the book to be enclosed in the envelope.

3. The questions of the Examiners in the Homeopathic subjects will be handed, at the beginning of the general examination on the same subject, by the Registrar or Deputy, to such candidates as shall have given him notice in accordance with Section III., sub. sec. 7.

They shall write the answers to these questions in the same hall with the other candidates, and hand their papers, when finished, to the Registrar in the same manner as provided for other candidates, to be by him given for examination to the Homeopathic members of the Board of Examiners appointed to examine on that subject.

4. No candidate will be allowed to leave the hall after the questions are given out, until his answers have been handed in.

5. No one shall be allowed in the hall during the hours of examination, except those who are actually undergoing examination, or members of the Council or officials connected therewith.

6. Any candidate who may have brought any book or reference paper into the hall must deposit it with the Registrar before the examination begins.

7. Candidates must not communicate with each other while examinations are going on by writing, signs, words, or in any manner whatever.

8. Candidates must at all times bear themselves toward the Registrar or Deputy and Examiners with the utmost deference and respect; and they will not be permitted in any manner to manifest approbation or disapprobation of any member of the Board of Examiners during the progress of the examination.

9. Candidates must not only conduct themselves with decorum while an examination is going on, but they will be held strictly responsible for any impropriety of conduct during the whole progress both of the written and the oral examinations.

10. Any infraction of the above rules will lead to the exclusion of the candidate who is guilty of it for the remainder of the examination; and he will not receive credit for any examination papers which may have been handed to the Registrar or Deputy previous to his being detected in such misconduct.

11. And he may be debarred from further privileges at the discretion of the Council.

(b) Reading of the Minutes.

All resolutions and reports must be taken up as they appear in the Order of the Day, and no variation of the foregoing order of business shall be permitted, except by consent of the Council.

RULES OF ORDER

5. When any member is about to speak in debate he shall rise in his place and address the presiding officer, confining himself to the question under debate.

6. When two or more members rise at the same time the presiding officer shall name the member who is first to speak.

7. No member, while speaking, shall be interrupted by another, except upon a point of order, or for the purpose of explanation. The member so rising shall confine himself strictly to the point of order, or the explanation.

8. If any member, in speaking or otherwise, transgress the rules, the presiding officer shall, or any member may, call him to order, in which case the member so called shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain.

9. No member shall speak more than once upon any motion, except the proposer thereof, who shall be permitted to reply; nor shall any member speak longer than a quarter of an hour on the same question without the permission of the Council, except in explanation, and he must then not introduce new matter.

10. Any member of the Council may require the question under discussion to be read at any time of the debate, but not so as to interrupt the speaker.

11. When the matter under consideration contains distinct propositions, under the request of any member the vote upon each proposition shall be taken separately.

12. No member shall speak to any question after the same has been put by the presiding officer.

13. Notices shall be given of all motions for introducing new matters other than matters of privilege and petitions at a previous meeting to that at which it comes up for discussion, unless dispensed with by a two-thirds vote of the members present. Any matter when once decided by the Council shall not be reintroduced during that session, unless by a two-thirds vote of the Council then present.

14. A motion must be put in writing and seconded before it is stated by the presiding officer, and then shall be disposed of only by a vote of the Council, unless the mover, by permission of the Council, withdraws it. Every member present shall vote unless excused by the Council.

15. At the close of the annual session the minutes of the last meeting shall be read, approved and signed by the presiding officer.

16. In all cases not provided for by these rules, resort shall be had to the procedure of Parliament.

17. The Registrar shall make a list of all motions and reports on the table in the order in which they were received, which shall be considered under the heading "General Orders of the Day."

18. The presiding officer shall preserve order and decorum during each session of the Council, and protect the members in the enjoyment of their rights and privileges. He shall decide all questions of order, giving his reasons for such decision, and citing the rule applicable to the case, subject, however, to an appeal to the Council, and in case of an appeal it shall be put by the presiding officer in the following words: "Shall the chair be sustained?"

19. All questions of order upon which an appeal has been made from the decision of the presiding officer shall be decided by a direct vote of the Council without debate.

20. The presiding officer shall declare all votes, but, if any members demand it, such presiding officer, without further debate on the question, shall require the members voting in the affirmative and negative, respectively, to stand until they are counted, and he shall then declare the result. At the request of any two members the yeas and nays shall be taken and recorded.

21. The presiding officer shall not give any other than a casting vote, but may express his opinion on any subject under debate.

22. The presiding officer shall consider a motion to adjourn as always in order; but no second motion to the same effect shall be made until after some intermediate business has been transacted. This motion must be put without debate.

23. No motion except to adjourn shall be introduced unless it be written in ink and contains the names of the mover and seconder.

24. Every motion shall be read by the mover, standing in his place; it shall then be handed to the presiding officer, who shall read and submit it to the Council.

25. When a question is under debate, no other motion shall be entertained except a motion to amend, to commit, to postpone, or to lay on the table, or a motion for the previous question, or for adjournment, which last shall always be in order except when the Council is in Committee of the Whole.

26. Amendments, whether in Committee or in Council, shall be submitted to the vote before the original motion, in the reverse order in which they are moved.

27. A motion for commitment, until it is decided, shall preclude all amendments to the main question.

28. A motion to postpone shall include a day to be named for the further consideration of the question.

29. A motion to lay on the table shall be taken without debate; when it prevails the subject matter shall not be revived during the session except by a two-thirds vote of the Council.

30. The "previous question" until it is decided shall preclude all amendments to the main question, and shall be put, without debate, in the following words: "Shall the main question be now put?" If this motion be resolved in the affirmative, the original question is to be put forthwith, without amendments or debate.

31. Whenever the presiding officer shall consider that a motion before the Council is contrary to the By-laws or inconsistent with the report or other matter to which it was intended to refer, it shall be his duty to rule it out of order.

Minutes of the Meeting

OF THE

MEDICAL COUNCIL OF ONTARIO

JUNE, 1920

FIFTY-FIFTH ANNUAL SESSION

FIRST DAY

The Annual Meeting of the Council for 1920 began to-day, Tuesday, June 29th, 1920, in the College Chambers, at the hour of 2 o'clock in the afternoon, Dr. Emmerson in the chair.

Roll Call

The Registrar called the roll, when the following members answered to the same:—Drs. Addison, Argue, Arthur, Becker, Brodie, Connell, Dales, Eccles, Emmerson, Farncomb, Ferguson, Griffin, Hardy, Horton, Jarvis, Johnson, Kellam, King, J. M. MacCallum, S. McCallum, Routledge, Spankie, Walters, Stewart and Young.

ELECTION—DIVISION No. 12.

The Registrar announced that a vacancy had occurred in Division No. 12 through the death of Dr. H. J. Hamilton. A new election was held and the returning officer for the Division sent in the nomination papers, which were complete, of Dr. Robert T. Noble. There was an additional nomination, in which there was only one nominating signature in place of twenty (or more), and consequently it was not one that could be recognized. Dr. Noble was reported as elected, by the Returning Officer, Dr. F. C. Harrison.

The President nominated a Credentials Committee, consisting of Drs. Addison, Becker and King. This Committee retired and examined the credentials and reported them as in order and complete, and that Dr. Noble had been duly elected.

The President then announced Dr. Noble as elected for Division No. 12, and introduced him as a member of the Council.

Dr. Noble then took his seat in the Council Chamber.

Retiring President's Address

The Retiring President, Dr. Emmerson, then addressed the Council at length.

Dr. Emmerson said:—

Gentlemen:—During the past year the duties of the Council have been confined largely to routine work, a summary of which will be given later by our Registrar. Since our last meeting there has been a change of Government, with the appointment of a new Ministry. It is likely that because of this there has been no action taken regarding the Medical Report of the Royal Commission. This Commission was promised by Sir James Whitney and appointed by his successor, the Hon. Mr. Hearst, in the person of Mr. Justice Hodgins, who was very thorough and painstaking in his preparation of the report of the same. It was presented to the Government in 1918 which, in session, decided it was so important and its recommendations so far reaching and some of the changes suggested so radical, that its consideration required more time than could be given at that session. Therefore they deferred action for a year, so that all parties interested might have time to deliberate on the Report. This Council in its meeting in 1918 made a series of recommendations which were forwarded to the Government, which, in the session of 1919, again considered the Report, but without passing any legislation.

It is of the utmost importance that the College place before the Hon. Mr. Drury the history of this report, its careful preparation and the need for Medical legislation, especially in the interests of the general public. This Council for that purpose should appoint a strong Legislative Committee, which will not only urge the Government to take action on the Report but also be fully alert that no vicious legislation be enacted. The necessity for this was very manifest in the closing hours of the session of 1919 when, had it not been for the prompt action of the few members of the Legislative Committee that could be hastily summoned, legislation would have been made, that in no way would have benefited the public, and yet would have taken practically all authority from our College and destroyed its usefulness. The Council received notice of the intended legislation on a Saturday with the statement that if we wished to appear before the Government regarding the same we were to do so the following Monday at 4 p.m.

The Workmen's Compensation Act, although now fairer than when first brought into effect, could be still much improved. The regulation as to who may act as an anæsthetist is not in the best interests of the patient and the fee therefor is entirely inadequate. The deviser of this clause could have had no proper conception of the graveness of the administration of anæsthetics. The regulation requiring the authority of the Board, before an assistant be employed, where necessary, is useless, as it cannot be carried out by the surgeon. Also, we have as yet no simple Board of Appeal to which cases, deemed by the employee or surgeon to be unfairly dealt with, may be referred. Reasonable changes in regard to these conditions should be urged.

The Ontario Temperance Act continues a source of dissatisfaction to medical men, and the cause of much expense to the College. How to avoid this has so far been unsolved. So long as the Act remains in force, and the liquor to be used for medicinal purposes only, I can see no other way than for the physician to determine when this is necessary; and, until we are prepared to go to the Government with some feasible scheme for otherwise dispensing alcoholic liquors, we must continue, not simply to carry out the spirit of the provisions of the Act ourselves, but as a Council to urge the profession to likewise do so, and to do our part in disciplining those who violate the law. The welfare of the public and the honor of the profession demand this.

During the interim we were interviewed by Mr. Dingman, Vice-President of the License Board, with the intent of conferring on the Council powers for the prosecution of violators of the Act in the medical profession. It was deemed unwise to accede to this proposal as we believed this not to be one of the functions for which the Medical Council was instituted and regarded it as definitely part of the duties of the License Board. This will no doubt be more fully dealt with by the Registrar in his report.

Regarding applications for War Licenses it is not likely there will be many more. There have been a large number and it was not easy to judge properly what to do in some cases, and had it not been for the careful and efficient work of our Registrar in compiling the information regarding each applicant we would likely on several occasions have come to unwise decisions. No doubt some applicants were not satisfied with the decision of the Executive and these yet may be demurring to members of the Council.

If you will remember the rules adopted by this Council for general guidance in the granting of these licenses, there will be very few cases in which you will not be able to give an explanation that should satisfy any fair-minded person.

War licenses were to be granted to those graduates in medicine, who, because of enlistment, were unable to present themselves for our examinations. Such applicants were to be Ontario graduates, exceptional cases not coming within these regulations to be dealt with on their merits. There were many applicants whose graduation was not in Ontario. Several applied who could have presented themselves for examination previous to enlistment had they so desired. Only a very few of these were granted and the peculiar circumstances surrounding each were such that the Executive was persuaded that, had the whole Council been present, they would have been unanimous in granting the license.

In the regulations for those who may present themselves for our examination, there is one anomaly which was brought to the attention of the Council a year ago, but no action was taken thereon.

Those not entitled to registration under our reciprocity regulations, or through Canada Council registration, must take our examinations, and the applicant must come within one of two classes, namely, either be a graduate of an approved Medical College and have certificates of attendance covering a period of five years, unless a graduate in Arts or Science, in which case the period is four years, or, if from the United States, he must have graduated subsequent to 1916 from some one of certain "Accredited Colleges," which number about twenty-five. Not even a Professor in one of these Colleges if his graduation were prior to 1916 could present himself for examination. Nor could one coming from France or Italy, no matter what his attainments, qualify. A regulation could be made giving power to determine such cases on their merits, and, if the applicants have proper standing, that they be permitted to take our examinations.

Regarding drugs and pharmaceutical preparations sold to or dispensed for physicians, there was a motion passed at our last annual meeting directing the Executive of this Council to negotiate with the Executive of the Ontario Medical Association to arrange for the establishing of a laboratory for the purpose of examining the quality of such. Your Executive were of the opinion they should have some information as to the cost and feasibility of the scheme before approaching the Ontario Medical Association Executive and decided to communicate with the Health Department of the Federal Government at Ottawa. This in some way has not been done, and it is to be regretted.

Some action should be taken regarding the drugs and preparations prescribed by physicians in the treatment of patients. There is reason to believe that the quality is becoming inferior and the quantity less reliable. This is of very serious import.

It would appear the better way, if we could accomplish it, to have the Dominion Government pass legislation compelling all drugs and preparations to be true to label. This, with the aid of the Health Department at Ottawa, would have the desired effect. Failing this, then, if possible, some scheme such as that embodied in the resolution of a year ago should be brought into effect. I doubt if we fully realize how unreliable are many of the preparations we use. We should continue our efforts until the desired end is attained.

Changes in Medical Education:—In the general world upheaval in systems of government, the overthrow of some world-powers, the rapid advancement of others that had received but little general thought, the domineering struggle of labor and other allied problems, the situation has been and is largely one for supremacy of might. It is therefore easy to conceive that there is similar chaos in the realms of education, a phase of which this Council is vitally interested in, but, when calm thought is given thereto, it may be demonstrated that in medicine and surgery, including all these two terms embrace, the changes are rather a further elucidation of that which the years have been quietly yet constantly and persistently developing. If the years immediately preceding the war be thoughtfully analyzed, it must be quite apparent that while great changes have occurred, these have been mainly a developing of truths already discovered, or in process of discovery, and the correcting of theories. Also, it will be manifest that the beneficial changes caused by the war supply an added impetus to evolutions already in process. It must be so, for in education we deal with truths and theories. Truths do not change, many theories do. Some of the changes said to be evolved in the science of medicine and surgery during the war are still largely theory. Later, when peace at home and abroad is restored, and time given to winnow the wheat from the chaff, it is questionable whether with all the great stimulus caused by the war the progress of the six years following 1914 is any greater than that of the ten preceding years.

This Council should give careful thought to any changes in our matriculation, course of studies, examinations and license to practise, especially if of radical nature. I would bring to your attention that which is being mooted in many quarters, namely, the grading of Medical degrees and licenses to practise with a regrading every few years. The question is asked why they should not be graded into first, second and third classes, similar to that of those in the teaching profession. The latter is quite proper, because pupils are classified. You cannot classify patients. In support of this grading it is held, that at present a license to practise legally qualifies the young graduate to perform any operation though he may never have even assisted at such. I do not wish to be understood as saying anything derogatory to the title of F.R.C.S., yet this distinguishing qualification is regarded as entitling the holder to be ranked as a specialist in surgery and competent to treat the gravest of surgical conditions. How many operations had some of the holders of this qualification undertaken, prior to their acquisition of the same?

The grading of licenses has in view the classifying of the surgical cases each should treat, but nothing whatever is said of the purely medical cases, or the impossibility of in any way classitying these, yet in a general practice there will be dozens of the gravest disease conditions of a purely medical type for one that is surgical, hence grading would have no beneficial effect in a general practice in the treatment of disease.

A classification of licenses and degrees, which would also frequently not be in accord the one with the other, would have a baneful influence on the profession and a vicious effect on the public. There should, as at present, be only one form of license for general practice, but the Council ought to give all the aid and stimulus possible to a continuation of the studies begun previous to the obtaining of such license, especially in those practical branches dealing with disease conditions in men.

The following motion was passed by our Council a year ago—"That the Education Committee be appointed a committee to consult with the Premier or Minister of Education with a view to establishing a fellowship standing in medicine and surgery in this College, and that ways and means be provided to establish a post-graduate course, leading up to such an advanced standing as aforementioned." The mover in speaking to the motion stated that it was made in the hope of evolving some plan whereby there would be an added stimulus to graduates and license holders to pursue their studies on definite lines, thus making better qualified practitioners, elevating professional attainments and rendering more efficient service to the public.

In closing I would remember the loss this Council has sustained in the death of two of its most honored members. Sir James Grant, the oldest in years as well as the oldest in membership in the Council, was a man of wide knowledge, high attainments, and broad experience. He has gone from us. During a long life his influence was ever given to the advancement of the science of medicine. The other, Dr. H. J. Hamilton, was with us a year ago. His kindly face and cheery words and stalwart form bade fair to ensure many years of usefulness in a profession of which he was an honored member. In the midst of strenuous work the call came. How true are the words, "The sad memories which death brings are part of our education. Under the influence of an absent soul the heart softens and man goes forth each day more of a friend to his race, and more of a worshipper of his God. Sorrow must enoble duty, not end it. The death of a friend exalts those who remain to weep."

The Council liberally applauded the address.

PROPERTY COMMITTEE REPORT

The report of Property Committee was then read, whereupon Dr. Arthur moved, seconded by Dr. Kellam, that it be adopted. (Carried.)

Toronto, Ont., June 30th, 1920.

To the President and Members of the Council of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario.

Gentlemen:—I beg to submit the report of the Property Committee.

Acting upon the recommendation of the Property Committee of last year, as embodied in its report, tenders were obtained to cover painting of the exterior of the building. Much of the underlying woodwork had so far decayed, as to require replacement before the painting could be done. All the woodwork was then painted, leaving the appearance of the exterior of the building trim and attractive.

The building, erected many years ago, still keeps settling, as a result of which, areas of depression form here and there in the tar and gravel roof, rain-water lodges in these pits, causing rotting of the roof material, and, following it, water penetrates the roof, often in considerable quantity, breaking down ceilings, and ruining wall papers. Temporary repairs have been made, but the Council must expect, within the reasonably near future, to face replacement of the whole roof, at the same time giving greater pitch to it, so as to more efficiently carry off the rain-water.

The heating plant is antiquated, breaking down from time to time, but your Committee hesitates, in view of the present high cost of labor and material, to do anything more radical just now than effect temporary repairs.

Otherwise, the building and grounds are in satisfactory condition.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

ARTHUR JUKES JOHNSON, Chairman.

CANADA MEDICAL COUNCIL REPRESENTATIVES' REPORT

The report of the representatives of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario on the Canada Medical Council, to which is attached a copy of the minutes of the proceedings of the Canada Medical Council, was then read.

Dr. Spankie moved, seconded by Dr. Griffin, that the same be received and filed. (Carried.)

The report follows:

Toronto, Ontario, June 30th, 1920.

To the President and Members of the Council of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario:

Gentlemen:—Your representatives on the Medical Council of Canada beg to report as follows:—

1. The Eighth Annual Meeting of the Medical Council of Canada was held at the City of Ottawa on June 1st and 2nd last.

Several prominent members of the Council were unable to be present and expressed their regrets for the same, giving the cause in each case.

2. The Session was one of purely routine work. No new regulations were made and the work of the past year was reported by the Registrar as having been carried out without undue friction of any kind.

3. The only subject of debate during the Session was regarding the best method of popularizing the Examinations of the Council and increasing the membership of its licentiates, and this culminated in the appointment of a Committee consisting of the University representatives who are members of the Council. This Committee was given authority to make reasonable expenditures in attending to these duties, and it is expected they will be called together at least one day previous to the next Session of the Council.

4. The Registrar reported that during the year 47 had registered under the ten-year clause and that 68 are now being examined at the triple centre of Toronto, Winnipeg and Vancouver.

An Examination will be held at Montreal and Halifax in October of this year; and at Toronto, Winnipeg and Vancouver, on the second Tuesday in June, 1921.

5. A complete copy of the Minutes of the Council is appended.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

WM. SPANKIE,

H. S. GRIFFIN,

Dr. King presented the report of the Special Committee appointed to consider the Past President's annual address.

MOTIONS OF WHICH NOTICE HAD BEEN GIVEN

Dr. King moved, seconded by Dr. Stewart, "that the Legislative Committee and the Executive Committee be empowered to consult the Government for power to suspend, during the interim of the Council, a member of the College who has been found guilty by the Discipline Committee, after investigation, of an offence of a disgraceful nature, in a professional sense." (Carried.)

Dr. Farncomb moved, seconded by Dr. Stewart, "that as some form of state medical legislation will undoubtedly be enacted at some early date, the Legislative Committee be instructed to confer with the Legislature in reference to enactment of legislation toward State assistance, towards paying for medical and nursing expenses, in maternity cases, to persons of limited means." (Carried.)

Dr. Stewart moved, seconded by Dr. King, that "in reference to the operation of the Ontario Temperance Act, the Ontario Council of the College of Physicians and Surgeons beg leave to make the following suggestions to the Board of License Commissioners of Ontario, i.e.:

"(1) That, in those cases which are considered as chronic, there should be a certificate from a qualified physician of the Province, setting out the facts of the case, sent to your board, who may issue an official order to the patient for a fixed amount of liquor periodically.

"(2) That in respect to proof spirit alcohol, for local use, that the same must not be dispensed without an addition to the alcohol of some substance that will prevent it being used internally."

With consent of the Council, the two numbered clauses were considered separately.

Drs. King and Stewart moved the adoption of clause No. 1. (Carried.)

Drs. Stewart and King moved the adoption of clause No. 2.

A vote was taken, when the motion was declared as being lost.

A record of the vote is here appended:

Yeas—Drs. Addison, Argue, Dales, Farncomb, Ferguson, Griffin, Jarvis, Kellam, King, Noble, Stewart—11.

Nays: Drs. Arthur, Becker, Brodie, Eccles, Emmerson, Hardy, Horton, Johnson, J. MacCallum, S. McCallum, Spankie, Walters, Young—13.

RULES AND REGULATIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

The report of the Committee on Rules and Regulations was then considered. The by-laws contained in the report were then taken as read a first time, when, on motion of Dr. Emmerson, seconded by Dr. Brodie, the Council went into Committee of the Whole to consider the report clause by clause.

At the request of the President, the chair was taken by Dr. King.

The report was then read clause by clause, when, upon motion of Dr. Argue, seconded by Dr. Arthur, the Committee rose and the Chairman reported the by-laws as adopted in Committee of the Whole, the President having already resumed the chair.

Dr. King then moved, seconded by Dr. Kellam, that the report of the Rules and Regulations Committee, as adopted in Committee of the Whole, be now read a third time, adopted in Council, signed by the President and sealed with the seal of the College. (Carried.)

For by-laws see page 42 of Annual Announcement.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE RE RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE

Dr. Addison moved, seconded by Dr. Arthur, that the report of the Special Committee appointed to draw up resolutions of condolence in connection with the late Sir James Grant, Dr. H. J. Hamilton and R. J. Gibson, former members of the Council, be adopted, and that a copy of same be transmitted to the families of these deceased members of the Council.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE RE PAST PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Dr. King presented a verbal report of the Special Committee appointed to consider the annual address of the Past President of the Council, Dr. Emmerson, and moved, seconded by Dr. Stewart, that it be adopted. (Carried.)

VOTE OF THANKS TO PRESIDENT

Dr. Ferguson proposed, seconded by Dr. Walters, a vote of thanks to the President for the able and happy way in which he had filled the chair during the Council session.

The members of the Council warmly applauded the same.

Dr. Routledge acknowledged the compliment in his usual felicitous way.

MINUTES READ

The minutes of the present session were then read and formally confirmed.

ADJOURNMENT

On motion of Drs. Brodie and Dales, the Council then adjourned, July 1st, 1920.

(Sgd.) G. A. ROUTLEDGE, President.

RÉSUMÉ

To the Members of the College:

Gentlemen,—Under the direction of the Council of the College, I am submitting résumé of proceedings of its annual meeting, and, associated with same, brief reference to matters of moment of joint public and professional interest, occurring in the interval-period between the last and the present meeting of the Council.

Dr. Emmerson's Presidential Address.

To those of the members of the College, who have at heart alike the welfare of the public and the interests of the profession, the address of the retiring president must offer strong appeal.

Forethought in their preparation and felicity in their expression have served to add force to arguments advanced therein, appealing for a wider horizon and a larger outlook.

Medical Legislation

A specially representative Legislative Committee was selected by the Council, at its recent meeting, to act in behalf of the College, in conference with Government or Legislature, in all matters in which there is community of interest between the public and the profession.

With the establishment of the College, under legislative enactment, more than half a century ago, special privileges were conferred upon the members of the profession at that time practicing their calling in the Province of Ontario. The Legislature, in granting them incorporation, did not contemplate, in the exercise of these privileges, mere satisfaction of personal or selfish ends, but conscientious and consistent endeavor, on the part of the profession, in its now corporate capacity, to realize as paramount its duty to safeguard public interest, and its sacred obligation to render to the community, thus endowing it with special privilege, service commensurate, adequate, loyal and whole-hearted.

There is at times evidence of feeling, limited, it is true, to a few only of the members of the College, that meeting qualification requirements of the College and honoring its annual tax create some kind of vested right, to have matters of personal concern weigh equally with those of public moment, and corresponding inclination to regard as collateral obligation, resting upon the College, the duty of directing its energies to the satisfaction of personal rather than of public ends.

It is unfortunate that such feeling should exist, for tangible expression of it lends color to the belief, entertained in turn by a limited portion of the community, that the Medical Council is disposed to subordinate the interests of the public to those of the profession, and this belief renders it difficult to make it apparent to the Government, that changes in the Medical Act, asked for by the College, are wholly altruistic in their aim and purpose.

For long years the profession has been knocking at the doors of the Legislature, asking for a definition of the term "the practice of medicine." A reasonable definition of the same, interpreted in terms of legislation, would serve to eliminate elements in the community which constitute positive menace to the welfare of the same.

Some years since, when the College proposed seeking judicial interpretation of its powers to stem a rising tide of threatening evil, it was asked to stay its hand, pending investigation and legislation. A Royal Commission, to enquire into the whole question of the general medical situation in the Province of Ontario, was promised and eventually appointed, and later presented its findings. Opportunity was not wanting for crystallizing the same into legislative form, but legislation did not follow, and is still lacking. Governments, like individuals, are "troubled about many things," and the handling of matters of seemingly greater concern may be offered as explanation of apparent interminable delay in formulating policy, and instituting means, by which the profession, in its corporate capacity, can with firm hand and fixed purpose deal with a situation, alarming in its possibilities for evil, which at present is wholly out of hand.

It seems inconceivable that a community, which "with lavish hand" honors the claims and recognizes the worth of intensive technical training, should at the same time tacitly sanction the practice of cults, whose disciples claim that the treatment of disease in the human body does not presuppose or call for knowledge of its anatomy or construction, or of the way in which nature carries on her various physiological activities.

The public is often slow to react, and even the death of one of its citizens from repeated recurrent intrauterine hæmorrhage, taking place over a considerable period of time, during which "massage," administered by a neopath, is sole form of treatment employed for curative purpose, does not create alarm in it, or awaken it to the need of asking the Legislature to proteet the community against, not the "practice," but the practices of untrained and irresponsible agents.

The lack of legislation, in this respect, cannot be laid at the door of the present administration. Burdens have been handed down to it by its predecessors in office, and reasonable opportunity for taking over burdens, and assuming duties and responsibilities of office, must in common fairness be conceded to it. The singularly sympathetic response of the new Government to the appeal of our Legislative Committee, asking it to use all necessary measures to carry out the provisions of the Vaccination Act, warrants the belief that it will ring true when it is called upon to deal with a situation, fraught with peril to the community, created by these irresponsible and irregular practitioners. To the custody of the Committee alluded to earlier is committed the task of approaching the Government, with a view to asking it, in this connection, to consider carefully the recommendations of the Royal Commissioner, Mr. Justice Hodgins, and to give effect to such of them as the facts and findings revealed in his report may seem to warrant.

With better defined and more comprehensive powers, the College will be able to limit the activities of charlatans, and if the Legislature concurs in the wisdom of investing it with greater authority to deal with delinquents in its own ranks, it will not be found unequal to the task of meeting superadded burdens.

It is a matter for regret that some of the members of the College are not free from the reproach of misinterpreting their obligations to the public, and of abusing confidence freely reposed in them, and it is disconcerting to note their utter failure to recognize, that special privilege implies corresponding obligation, and that obligation, thus imposed, does not leave it open to interpret special privilege, as merely opportunity, generously provided by a trusting public, to facilitate accomplishment of personal and selfish ends.

From time to time, occurrences, transpiring in the community, involving the professional standing and integrity of members of the College, furnish occasion to the press to ask the question:—"Why doesn't the Medical Council take action in the premises?" The one obvious and the only answer that can be given, in many such cases, where the Council does not act, is, that the Council is limited to the exercise of the powers conferred upon it by the Act, under which it derives its authority, and that it is further limited by decisions of the Courts. It would act, and would act promptly and effectively, in many cases, where the public assumes it has a right to act, and under moral obligation to do so, if it were not itself subject to limitations, which confine its operations within very circumscribed bounds. Given added power, to be used circumspectly, to discipline offenders in its own ranks, who lend their standing in the College to aiding and abetting practices, involving physical and moral ruin of human beings, their own fellow citizens, the College will not fail to exercise it. It seems deplorable to think that it could lie within the power of a respected and able magistrate in the City of Toronto, in a given case, involving the conduct of a member of the profession, conduct unworthy of any one concerned with the preservation of his own self-respect, to publicly ask the Crown Attorney that the case be drawn to the attention of the Medical Council, and that the Medical Council in turn is under obligation to have to make the humiliating admission that, as the law stands, it is powerless to do anything to discipline the member in question. How can the College discipline a member if it has no power to do so? A member of the College can prostitute his high calling, and give over his energies to the shameless practice of supplying morphia, cocaine, heroin, etc., to returned soldiers and others, and the Council, in response to the invitation of the magistrate to investigate, and, if need be, employ disciplinary measures, is under the painful necessity of having to openly confess that it is unable to adduce the kind of proof required by law to warrant a conviction, although the doctor knows, and his bondslaves know and the public knows, that wholesale traffic is being carried on in the drugs in question.

It should surely not be difficult for the Legislature to make provision, allowing wider discretion on the part of the Council in reaching conclusions as to guilt or innocence in any given case of this kind. Such provision would enable the College to curb those of its members, whose moral sense exercises no restraining influence upon them, in their relations with importunate drug fiends.

Ontario Temperance Act

The question of how far the medical profession, as such, should be called upon to take part in the solution of social problems, was raised with the introduction, in modified form, of the Ontario Temperance Act.

The profession, as a whole, however widely its members have differed in their views as to its expediency, has shown commendable spirit in its desire to co-operate loyally with the Government in its efforts to make effective the provisions of the Act.

There is no bar sinister on the escutcheon of the College in its conception of the duty it owes in this connection to the community. It has not only unreservedly accepted the verdict of the electorate on this question, but in open Council has given the stamp of its approval to the measure, appealing to the constituency it represents to abide faithfully by the decision of the people. Unique response to this appeal is shown in the fact that over ninety per cent. of the profession have limited their prescriptions to actual needs, and the License Department has not been slow to advertise the fact, that less than ten prescriptions a month constitute the average number given by the members forming this group. The remaining ten per cent. have issued prescriptions largely in excess of this number, while the number issued by some has been positively scandalous.

The Council has used all the powers with which it is clothed to endeavor to meet this situation, including the erasure from its register of the names of a number of its members.

It is confronted, however, in this endeavor to confine the issue of liquor prescriptions within legitimate bounds, with a legal decision, given by a High Court judge, which virtually holds, that any medical man who is prepared to make oath that in every instance in which he has given a prescription for liquor it was actually needed by his patient, is free to give such liquor "ad libitum."

This decision holds.

The Council cannot, therefore, merely on the strength of the number of prescriptions given, discipline a member, if he is willing to make oath that the liquor was needed in every case in which he prescribed its use.

The public demands action of the Council, the Courts restrain it; the Legislature is in control of the situation.

In the early half of the current year, a conference was had of the Executive Committee with the Vice-Chairman of the License Board, Mr. W. S. Dingman.

It was the unanimous sense of the Committee, that, while the profession might reasonably be called upon to be generous in its support of the temperance measure, its representative body, the Medical Council, should not be asked to concern itself with administrative details of the same, and that the latter should fall to the lot of the body specifically charged with the responsibility of seeing that the provisions of the Act were duly enforced, namely, the Board of License Commissioners for Ontario.

It was felt that the community had already sufficiently taxed the medical profession, in asking its members to distinguish between the "wants" and the "needs" of the public in the matter of liquor distribution, without imposing upon it the additional burden of indicating whether the individual doctor, in the course of his practice, was giving too much liquor or not. To have yielded to the suggestion that the College should be a court of ultimate resort, in this respect, determining, where a determination was sought, how much or how often liquor should be prescribed by any one or all of the thirty-five hundred practitioners in the province, would have been equivalent to asking the Government to accept the responsibility of relieving the College altogether of its duties as a representative body. The machinery required and the expense involved would have been prohibitive, and where there is such diversity of opinion as to the value of alcohol in the treatment of disease, it would have been found impossible to assemble a representative body of medical men who would be willing to undertake to say how much or how little liquor any individual member of the "guild" might or might not need to prescribe in the course of his practice.

The suggestion was withdrawn, while at the same time, the Committee again undertook to assure the representative of the License Board that, subject to restrictions imposed by law, the College would continue to place all its powers at the disposal of the authorities in the effort of the latter to provide for due observance of the law.

This desire of the College to render effective aid to the Government would be more easy of attainment if the power to suspend the license of an offending member could be exercised by the Executive Committee in the interval between Council meetings. The Council Meetings are annual, and are held in June of each year. The Legislature in its 1919 session gave the College authority to suspend a member for infractions of the Act, such authority to be exercised in Council meeting, but it did not provide any means by which, in the interval between Council meetings, its Executive Committee could act in the premises. Punishment of deterrent character offers more impressive object-lesson when it follows swiftly and surely upon commission of offence, and power to act promptly would enable the College to use expedition in removing from its register the names of those of its members, apparently unable, when prescribing alcohol, to differentiate between liberty and license.

Overseas Medical Officers and Civil Re-establishment

The Council, in annual session, 1919, was so far impressed with the urgency of the need of further training on the part of young medical men who had, with desire to subordinate personal ambition to imperial need, gone abroad before completion of their normal period of study, that it appointed a special committee to interview the Federal Government, asking that a grant be made to cover the cost to these returned officers of a special course to be given by the universities, and that these officers be under compulsion to take the course in question.

In early October, 1919, the Committee (Drs. Emmerson, King, Griffin and Argue), together with the Registrar, appeared before the Civil Re-establishment Committee of the House of Commons, to present their views and to urge the voting of this grant.

Dr. King, who was asked to speak in behalf of the deputation, was lucid in his exposition of the situation, clearly demonstrating need for further training of the young men in question, to enable them the better to qualify for more efficient public service.

The Doctor was firm in pressing home the demand for an appropriation to cover this service, justified by reason of sacrifices on the part of these young officers, and also by reason of the ultimate benefit to accrue to the community as a whole. In this effort to impress the Committee, Dr. King received able support from his colleagues.

The Re-establishment Committee freely catechised the members of the deputation, with a view to eliciting fullest information, and, in parting company with it, asked its members to accept assurance that Parliament would view with sympathy the claims submitted, and would be limited in exercise of generosity in relation to them, only by its financial ability to honor them.

The Re-establishment Committee's report was later presented to Parliament, and revealed demands coming from so many diverse quarters, asking for similar recognition of overseas service, as to make it apparent that no all-wide scheme, designed to provide recognition of this character, could be devised, and that, in its absence, no appeal to regard as special and preferential the claims of medical officers could be entertained.

War Licenses

In his presidential address, Dr. Emmerson alluded to the granting of licenses by the College to certain graduates in medicine of Ontario Universities whose studies were interfered with by reason of enlistment in the military establishment.

There was nothing indiscriminate in the manner of the distribution of the same, and every application for consideration was dealt with wholly on its own merits.

Absolute unanimity of view obtained between the Council and its Executive Committee as to the character of relief to be afforded, and as to the nature of the grounds which should be held to constitute legitimate basis for the founding of claims.

Matriculation requirements were relaxed in the case of returned soldiers to the extent of accepting certificates from Ontario Universities of attendance upon special matriculation classes provided by the universities, and of having satisfied requirements of same.

In the matter of the granting of war licenses the College felt itself bound to make good, as far as possible, loss sustained through interruption of study by medical units enlisting for service abroad, at a date anterior to the date set for the holding of its qualifying examinations, and not able for this reason to obtain standing at that time in the ordinary way.

It did not feel itself under equal obligation to honor claims preferred by other medical officers, graduates of extra-provincial or foreign universities, based solely on the ground of war service, and it was not conscious of having transgressed the bounds of propriety in offering to them the suggestion that they should look to the provinces or countries, in the universities of which their studies had been conducted and degrees obtained, to exercise toward them generosity in spirit and degree not less than that manifested by this College to graduates of Ontario universities.

During the period of the war, in every instance in which a special license was granted, evidence was required of graduation in medicine, and of enlistment taking place, during the course of the war.

The Vaccination Act

There is in the statute book provision for compulsory vaccination. Of late years, in the absence of any widespread epidemic of smallpox in the province, there has been growing inclination to disregard the requirements of the Act. Vaccination has not been rigidly enforced.

In the interval-period between Council meetings, an epidemic of smallpox spread over the province. The Legislative Committee, feeling it to be in the interests of the people of the province, that recourse should be had to general vaccination, asked for an interview with the Government, to urge upon it the necessity of adopting measures to have the provisions of the Act strictly enforced.

Although the Honorable the Premier was unavoidably absent, there was a large representation of the cabinet and, following full discussion of the smallpox situation and of the efficacy of vaccination, the Committee was able to leave, comforted with the assurance that there would be no modification of the Act, looking to relaxation of its present stringent requirements in the matter of compulsory vaccination.

Canada Medical Council

Drs. Spankie and Griffin, representatives for the past four years of the College in the Council of the Canada Medical Council, in their annual report gave account of their stewardship.

The work of the Canada Medical Council this year was largely routine in character, but it is gratifying to know that the Council is gaining ground and increasing in popularity from year to year. With the passing of local prejudice, its future seems assured.

Representatives of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario on the Council of the Canada Medical Council for the succeeding term of four years, were appointed in the persons of Drs. Emmerson and Farncomb. Their selection is guarantee of service, not less intensive, painstaking and conscientious than that given by their predecessors.

Admission of Foreign Graduates to College Examinations

Owing to the wide divergence of standards required in medical colleges abroad, and owing to the fact that no set of regulations for admission of foreign graduates to the examinations of the College could be framed, which would be of universal application, the Council decided to adopt the policy of dealing with each application for admission upon its own merits, and for this purpose imposed upon its Executive Committee the burden of making due enquiry and passing judgment in the case of each such application, permitting exercise of its authority to grant admission in those instances only where it was abundantly apparent that matriculation, curriculum and examination requirements equivalent to those of our own College had been already fully satisfied elsewhere.

(This action of the Council does not serve to modify in any way the privileges enjoyed by licentiates of the British Medical Council, or graduates of those medical colleges in the United States, already recognized by our Council as "Accredited Colleges.")

Reciprocity of Standing for Registration Purposes, as Between the United States and Ontario

For some years reciprocity for registration purposes has obtained between the Medical Councils of the United Kingdom and Ontario, and advantage has been taken of the same to profit through incidence of wider opportunity.

Encouraged by the unqualified merits of this reciprocity relationship, a feeling has arisen that comparable relationship might be established between high grade medical institutions in the United States and Ontario, looking to approximation of examination standards and, if feasible, interchange of registration standing.

There are colleges and teaching institutions in the United States and Ontario engaged in honest effort to place at the disposal of their students opportunities for acquiring education and training of advanced character, and engaged likewise in honest effort to render imperative upon students, to whom unexcelled opportunities are thus offered, obligation to justify their right to enjoy use of same.

In view of parallel demands on the part of these American and Ontario colleges for more exacting study and more intensive training, it has been thought possible that common ground might be found, as between such representative bodies in the United States and Ontario, for common action, looking to mutual recognitions for examination and registration purposes.

With a view to the adoption of a broader policy in this regard, Dr. Connell moved in Council, that correspondence be had with the National Board of Medical Examiners of the United States, proposing interchange of views, and inviting suggestions as to the best means of finding a basis for acceptance of corresponding standards.

The Council, feeling that scientific and political boundaries had nothing in common, gave its hearty endorsement to the proposal.

Government Analysis of Pharmaceutical Preparations

Pharmaceutical preparations used by the profession are almost wholly prepared by manufacturing pharmaceutical drug houses.

To be of value, such preparations should be of known quantitative and qualitative standard.

Owing to the feeling permeating the medical community, that there is uncertainty as to the same, Dr. Brodie, by resolution, committed the Council to asking the Government that analysis of all such preparations, or, at least, guarantee, under Government supervision, of the genuine nature of the same, be had. Result of appeal to be indicated to Council at its next meeting.

Medical Witness Fees

The Council endorsed Dr. Kellam's motion, that representations be made to the Ontario Government (or Legislature), asking it to provide for an increase in fees paid to medical witnesses in court cases, in view of the inadequacy of the amount of such fees, as paid at present.

Pension Fund in Connection with Disabled or Needy Members of the College

Dr. Stewart found the Council sympathetic when he moved that a report be made to the next Council meeting as to the legality and feasibility of establishing a fund, to be employed for the relief of worthy disabled or needy members of the College.

State Aid in Maternity Cases

The Council adopted Dr. Farncomb's motion, asking that the Government enact suitable legislation to provide some measure of State aid to be given in selected maternity cases, to cover cost of medical and nursing attendance, in families of limited means, where need for such aid is apparent.

Notification to Coroners, where Deceased Had Been Attended by Unlicensed Practitioners

Dr. Brodie voiced the sense of the medical profession in asking that the Government require that a coroner be officially notified by any doctor in attendance upon any patient, of the death of the patient in question, where death has taken place within ten days of any attendance rendered upon the patient by any unlicensed practitioner, and of the fact that such unlicensed practitioner had so attended the patient in question.

The Council adopted Dr. Brodie's resolution to this effect.

Obituary

During the course of the Council Year there passed away three members of the College, one of them, Dr. R. J. Gibson, of Sault Ste Marie, some years since a member of the Council, and a past-president of the College, and the other two, Sir James Grant and Dr. H. J. Hamilton, members of the Council at the time of their death.

Along with his geniality, his kindly disposition and gentle manners, which endeared him to all who knew him; along with his professional skill, Dr. Gibson was endowed with rare force of character and fixedness of purpose, which enabled him to lay the College under tribute to him, for persistence and courage, freely shown by him in its behalf, in his effort to make of it an instrument for performance of large public service.

Sir James Grant's contributions to Canadian public and professional life were so outstanding as to obviate need of extended reference to them. He had been a member of the Council for forty-nine years, enjoying all the honors it could confer upon him, and his continuity of service enabled him to place at its disposal an accumulated wealth of rich experience, upon which it could draw and in which it could find constant inspiration of incalculable value.

Dr. Hamilton's death (following pneumonia) had been wholly unlooked for. His devotion to his duties as a member of the Council had not been less conspicuous than his service of sacrifice in connection with the Academy of Medicine. Its present proud position, and the broad foundation upon which it rests, reflect in large measure his personal devotion to its welfare, for in and out of season he had its interests ever at heart.

The passing of such souls affords opportunity to appraise at value the heritage left to posterity by these "heirs of all the ages, in the foremost files of time."

Division No. 12—West Toronto

With the death of Dr. Hamilton a vacancy was created in the representation of Division No. 12.

Dr. Robert T. Noble, of Toronto, was elected by acclamation to fill it.

As well as the above, there were matters of less concern, and of routine character, engaging the attention of the Council in its annual session, to which reference need not be had.

Respectfully,

H. WILBERFORCE AIKINS, Registrar.

July, 1920.
